

What Can You Do?

The Commission is encouraging members of the public to contact us.

If you or your community suffered harm physically, emotionally, or financially or if your human rights were substantially violated during the past political upheavals from the year 1987, we would like to hear from you.

What Do We Do?

The Fiji Truth and Reconciliation Commission is an independent entity set up for truth-telling, reconciliation, and national healing.

- ▶ Our mandate is to examine past political upheavals and their impact on people's lives. We are looking at the physical and emotional harm, loss of life and property, and systemic injustices on people.
- ▶ We are doing this to foster unity and social cohesion in a society where everyone feels safe, equal, included and able to thrive.
- ▶ We seek to honour the lived experiences of survivors by providing a platform for their voices to be heard, validated, and acknowledged.
- ▶ Truth-telling is not about retribution. It is about recognition, healing, and ensuring that history is not repeated. Through reconciliation, we aim to build a stronger, more just, and peaceful Fiji for future generations.

Mission

To promote social cohesion through healing and reconciliation by:

- ▶ Facilitating open and free engagement in truth-telling regarding the political upheavals during coup periods from 1987 onwards.
- ▶ Promoting closure and healing for the survivors of these events.

Vision

Through reconciliation, we can build a stronger, just and more peaceful Fiji for all.
